3. The University shall respond to reasonable requests for explanations and interpretations of those records.
4. If circumstances effectively prevent the student from exercising the right to inspect and review the student's education records, the University shall ó
 - a. Provide the student with a copy of the records requested; or
 - b. Make other arrangements for the student to inspect and review the requested records.
5. The University shall not destroy any education records if there is an outstanding request to inspect and review the records under this section.

F. Fees for Copies of Educational Records

1. Unless the imposition of a fee effectively prevents a student from exercising the right to inspect and review the student's education records, the University may impose a reasonable fee for reproduction costs. This fee will not exceed the actual cost of production.
2. The University shall not charge a fee to search for or to retrieve the education records of a student.

G. Limitation on Access

1. If the education records of a student contain information on more than one student, the student may inspect and review or be informed of only the specific information about that student.
2. The University will not permit a student to inspect and review education records that are:
 - a. Financial records, including any information those records contain, of his or her parents;
 - b. Confidential letters and ETnfo3 577.9 Tm[)]TJET EMC /P AMC.(s e)-6(ff)6(e)-5(c)4(ti)-3(ve

4. If the University places a statement in the education records of a student, it shall:
 - a. Maintain the statement with the contested part of the record for as long as the record is maintained; and
 - b. Disclose the statement whenever it discloses the portion of the record to which the statement relates.
- K. Conduct of a Hearing -- Upon the request of the University official charged with custody of the records of the student, the hearing required by Section 180.020 J shall be conducted.
1. The request for a hearing shall be submitted in writing to the campus Chancellor, who will appoint a hearing officer or a hearing committee to conduct the hearing.
 2. The hearing shall be conducted and decided within a reasonable period of time following the request for the hearing. The University shall give the student notice of the date, time, and place, reasonably in advance of the hearing.
 3. The hearing shall be conducted and the decision rendered by an appointed hearing official or officials who shall not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.
 4. The student shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the hearing, and may be assisted or represented by individuals of his or her choice at his or her own expense, including an attorney.
 5. The decision of the University shall be based solely upon the evidence presented at the hearing and shall include a summary of the evidence and the reasons for the decision.
 6. The decision shall be rendered in writing within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of the hearing.
 7. Either party may appeal the decision of the hearing official or officials to the campus Chancellor.
- L. Conditions Under Which Prior Consent is Required
1. The student shall provide a signed and dated written consent before the University discloses personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except as provided in Section 180.020 M.
 2. The written consent must:
 - a. Specify the records that may be disclosed;
 - b. State the purpose of the disclosure; and
 - c. Identify the party or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made.
 3. If a student so requests, the University shall provide him or her with a copy of the records disclosed.
- M. Conditions Under Which Prior Consent is Not Required

1. The University may disclose personally identifiable information from an education record of a student without the consent required by Section 180.020 L if

- h. The disclosure is to parents of a dependent student, as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.
- i. The disclosure is to comply with a lawfully issued subpoena.
 - (1) The University may disclose this information only if it makes a reasonable effort to notify the student of the order or subpoena in advance of compliance, so that the student may seek protective action, unless the disclosure is in compliance with 6
 - (a) A Federal grand jury subpoena and the court has ordered that the existence or the contents of the subpoena or the information furnished in response to the subpoena not be disclosed; or
 - (b) Any other subpoena issued for a law enforcement purpose and the court or other issuing agency has ordered that the existence or the contents of the subpoena or the information furnished in response to the subpoena not be disclosed.
 - (2) If the University initiates legal action against a parent or student, the University may disclose to the court, without a court order or subpoena, the education records of the student that are relevant for the University to process with the legal action as plaintiff.
 - (3) If a parent or eligible student initiates legal action against the University, the University may disclose to the court, without a court order or subpoena, the student's education records that are relevant for the University to defend itself.
- j. The disclosure is in connection with a health or safety emergency, under the conditions described in Section 180.020 Q.
- k. The disclosure is information the University has designated as "directory information," under the conditions described in Section 180.020 R.
- l. The disclosure is to the student.
- m. The disclosure, subject to the requirements in Section 180.020 S, is to a victim of an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense. The disclosure may only include the final results of the disciplinary proceeding conducted by the University with respect to that alleged crime or offense. The University may disclose the final results of the disciplinary proceeding, regardless of whether the University concluded a violation was committed.
- n. (i) The disclosure, subject to the requirements in Section 180.020 S, is in connection with a disciplinary proceeding at the University providing that the University determines that ---

- (1) The student is an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or non-forcible sex offense; and
- (2) With respect to the allegation made against him or her, the student has committed the violation of the University's rules or policies.
 - (ii) The University may not disclose the name of any other student, including a victim or witness, without the prior written consent of the other student.
 - (iii) This section applies only to disciplinary proceedings in which the final results were reached on or after October 7, 1998.
- o. The disclosure is to a parent of a student under the age of twenty-one at the time of disclosure, and is limited to a determination that the student violated University regulations pertaining to the use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance, as provided by and under the restrictions contained in Section 180.025.

N. Record Keeping

1. ~~§ 180.025(1)(b) shall be amended to read:~~ for access to and each disclosure of personally identifiable information from the education records of

- c. A party with written consent from the student;
- d. A party seeking directory information; or
- e. A party seeking or receiving the records as directed by a Federal grand jury or other law enforcement subpoena and the issuing court or other issuing agency has ordered that the existence or the contents of the subpoena or the information furnished in response to the subpoena not be disclosed.

O. Limitations to the Redisclosure of Information

- 1. The University may disclose personally identifiable information from an education record only on the condition that the party to whom the information is disclosed will not disclose the information to any other party without the prior consent of the student. The officers, employees, and agents of a party that receives information may use the information, but only for the purposes for which the disclosure was made.
- 2. This does not prevent the University from disclosing personally identifiable information with the understanding that the party receiving the information may make further disclosures of the information on behalf of the University if:
 - a. The disclosures meet the requirements of Section 180.020 M; and
 - b. The University has complied with the requirements of Section 180.020 N.3.
- 3. Section 180.020 O.1 does not apply to disclosures made pursuant to court orders, lawfully issued subpoenas, litigation under Section 180.020 M.1.i, to disclosures of directory information under Section 180.020 M.1.k, to disclosures made to a parent or student under Section 180.020 M.1.j, to disclosures made in connection with a disciplinary proceeding under Section 180.020 M.1.n, or to disclosures made to parents under Section 180.025.
- 4. Except for disclosures under Section 180.020 M.1.k, l, m, and n, the University shall inform a party to whom disclosure is made of the requirements of this section.
- 5. If the University determines that a third party improperly rediscloses personally identifiable information from education records in violation of Section 180.020 O.1, the University may not allow that third party access to personally identifiable information from education records for at least five years.

P. Disclosure of Information for Federal or State Program Purposes

- 1. The officials listed in Section 180.020 M.1.c may have access to education records in connection with an audit or evaluation of federal or state supported education programs, or for the enforcement of or compliance with federal legal requirements which relate to those programs.
- 2. This information must:

1. "Alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence" is a student who is alleged to have committed acts that would, if proven, constitute any of the following offenses or attempts to commit the following offenses that are defined in Title 18, "Crimes and Criminal Procedure," of the United States Code:
 - a. Arson;
 - b. Assault offenses;
 - c. Burglary;
 - d. Criminal homicide - manslaughter by negligence;

A student enrolling in the University assumes an obligation to behave in a manner compatible with the University's function as an educational institution and voluntarily enters into a community of high achieving scholars. Consequently, students assume new responsibilities and expectations.

These expectations have been established in order to protect a specialized environment conducive to learning which fosters integrity, academic success, personal and professional growth, and responsible citizenship.

- A. Jurisdiction of the University of Missouri generally shall be limited to conduct which occurs on the University of Missouri premises or at University-sponsored or University-supervised functions. However, nothing restrains the administration of the University of Missouri from taking appropriate action, including, but not limited to, the imposition of sanctions under Section 200.020(C), against students for conduct on or off University premises in order to protect the physical safety of students, faculty, staff, and visitors.
- B. Conduct for which students are subject to sanctions falls into the following categories:
1. Academic dishonesty, such as cheating, plagiarism, or sabotage. The Board of Curators recognizes that academic honesty is essential for the intellectual life of the University. Faculty members have a special obligation to expect high standards of academic honesty in all student work. Students have a special obligation to adhere to such standards. In all cases of academic dishonesty, the instructor shall make an academic judgment about the student's grade on that work and in that course. The instructor shall report the alleged academic dishonesty to the Primary Administrative Officer.
 - a. The term cheating includes but is not limited to: (i) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (ii) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (iii) acquisition or possession without permission of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the University faculty or staff; or (iv) knowingly providing any unauthorized assistance to another student on quizzes, tests, or examinations.
 - b. The term plagiarism includes, but is not limited to: (i) use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without fully and properly crediting the
